India Office, April 6, 1892.

THE following General Order by the Government of India (No. 132 of 1892) relative to the late field operations in Manipur, is published in continuation of the papers published in the London Gazette of 14th August, 1891:—

FIELD OPERATIONS.—MANIPUR.

THE Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct the publication, in continuation of G.G.O. No. 585 of 1891, of the following correspondence:—

No. 547-M. "Field Operations, Manipur," dated Simla, 31st December, 1891.

From the Adjutant-General in India to the Secretary to the Government in India, Military Department.

With reference to this Office, No. 423-M., dated 11th July, 1891, I have the honour, by direction of the Commander-in-Chief, to forward extracts* from a letter from Brigadier-General Sir H. Collett, K.C.B., commanding the Assam District, bringing to notice the good services rendered by Lieutenant-Colonel St. J. F. Michell, Assistant Quartermaster-General, Manipur Field Force, during the advance on, and occupation of, Manipur; and to recommend that, in consideration of the strong representation made by Brigadier-General Collett, Lieutenant-Colonel Michell's name may be added to the list of those mentioned in paragraph 13 of Lieutenant-Colonel Rennick's despatch, dated 3rd May, 1891, published in Government General Order No. 585, dated 19th June, 1891.

No. 518, dated Shillong, the 8th December, 1891.

From Brigadier-General H. Collett, C.B., to the Adjutant-General in India.

As to Colonel Michell's services while with the Silchar Column Colonel Rennick of course can alone speak, but from the 27th April, the date of the occupation of Manipur, Colonel Michell worked directly under me as Assistant Quartermaster-General, and I beg to bring his services during that time to His Excellency's favourable consideration.

His duties were exceptionally important and onerous owing to the outbreak of cholera; he also served as President of the Committee which examined and, as far as possible, identified the remains of the murdered officers, and placed them in a new grave in the Residency compound. This duty was most painful and disagreeable, and Colonel Michell performed it in a most thorough and satisfactory manner. He also served as President of the Court to try the Ex-Regent, the Jubraj, and other State prisoners, and performed this difficult duty with judgment and discretion, and in a completely satisfactory manner.
